

Terms of Insurance Business

About us

PJ Frankland Ltd t/a Franklands Insurance & Risk Management of Exeter House, Stanier Way, The Wyvern, Derby DE21 6BF is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) under Registration Number 300198. You can check this on the FCA Register by visiting their website <http://www.fca.org.uk/> register or by contacting the FCA on 0800 111 6768.

We are also authorised by the FCA for consumer credit broking and act for a number of lenders.

We are committed to Treating our Customers Fairly. We arrange and advise on insurance, deal as Agent of Insurers and assist in claims handling on behalf of our customers based upon a fair analysis of the market. For some insurance arrangements we may use a small number of insurers or a single specialist insurer. We will inform you if this is the case. Our quotations are valid for 30days unless we state otherwise.

Conflicts of Interest

Occasions can arise where we or one of our associated companies, clients or product providers will have a potential conflict of interest with business being transacted by you. If this happens and we become aware that a potential conflict exists, we will write to you and detail the steps we will take to ensure fair treatment.

Terms Relating to Disclosure

Consumers: You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer. This means that all the answers you give and statements you make as part of your insurance application, including at renewal and when an amendment to your policy is required, should be honest and accurate. If you deliberately or carelessly misinform the insurers, this could mean that part of or all of a claim may not be paid.

Commercial customers: Your insurance is based upon the information provided to the insurance company.

Unless you are a Consumer (an individual buying insurance wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to their trade, business or profession) you must present the risk (i.e. the subject matter of the proposed insurance) fairly. This means that you must disclose to insurers, before the setting up or renewal of your insurance policy is concluded, anything that might influence the judgement of an insurer in fixing the premium, setting the terms or determining whether they would take the risk. If you are uncertain whether anything is material, you should disclose it.

In order to identify what must be disclosed, you are obliged to carry out a reasonable search before presenting the risk to insurers. This includes (but is not limited to) consulting with all senior managers. A senior manager is anyone who plays a significant role in the making of decisions about how your activities are to be managed or organised, regardless of whether or not that individual is a member of your board or is formally in a management role. You must also consult with anyone who has particular knowledge about the risk to be insured.

If you deliberately or recklessly (i.e. without care) fail to comply with your obligations to present the risk fairly, insurers may avoid the policy. This means they can retain all premiums and treat the policy as if it never exist and refuse to make any claims payments.

You could also be obliged to repay any claims payments that had already been made.

If you fail to present the risk fairly, but your failure was neither deliberate nor reckless, insurer's response will depend upon what would have happened if you had complied with your obligations:

- a) if insurers would not have provided the policy, they may treat the policy as if it never existed, refuse to make any claims payments and demand the return of any claims payments already made. However, insurers would have to return any premium payments already made;
- b) if insurers would have provided the policy but on different terms, the policy will remain in force but will be treated as if those different terms applied from the start of the policy. This could result in a claim not being met in part or in full;
- c) if insurers would have provided the policy but charged a higher premium, insurers may reduce any payment in proportion to the difference between the premium charged and the premium that would have been charged if you had fairly presented the risk. This could result in a significant reduction to the amount of any payment under the policy.

All statements and facts disclosed on proposal forms, statement of facts, claim forms and other documents should be full, true and accurate and must be given after undertaking a reasonable search, including consulting with your senior management. Where forms are completed on your behalf you must check them for accuracy and completeness before signing them. You must always read the declaration and make sure you understand it before you sign.

Data Protection

We are registered with The Information Commissioners Office in the UK and we undertake to comply with the most current Data Protection Act and regulations in all our dealings with your personal data. Your personal information will be kept secure.

Our Data Protection Officer's contact details are: Data Protection Officer, PIB Group Limited, 68 Lombard Street, London EC3V 9LJ. Email: dpo@pib-insurance.com

We collect your personal data for use by PIB Group Limited and subsidiary companies. We use this personal data for the provision of information or to fulfil the requirements of a contractual or service relationship which may exist between you and our organisation. In addition, special categories of personal data such as data about your health and criminal convictions may be processed on a public interest basis if this is necessary for insurance purposes.

Your data may be passed on to other insurance providers to fulfil the contract or service. More information on how the Insurance market works is available from the London Insurance Market Core Uses Information Notice available on-line here: <https://www.londonmarketgroup.co.uk/gdpr>

We may share your information with credit agencies and other companies for use in credit decisions, for fraud prevention and to pursue debtors. Specifically, if you ask us to arrange finance for your payment of premium, the companies we ask may perform a credit check. This may happen at inception and each renewal of the policy.

We may use your personal data for other similar purposes, including marketing and communications, but that will only occur if we have your consent or another legal justification for doing so. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you for marketing purposes.

Please be aware that telephone calls may be monitored and/or recorded.

You have the right to request access to any of your personal data we may hold. If any of that information is incorrect, you can request that we correct it. If we are not using your information correctly, you can request that we stop using it or that we delete it completely.

If you would like to make a request to see what personal data of yours we hold, you may make a request to our Data Protection Officer using the details above.

Where we have asked for your consent to use your personal data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. If you withdraw your consent, we will stop using your personal data where legally possible. Any processing undertaken before your withdrawal remains valid and lawful.

Your Responsibilities

If the insurance is arranged wholly or mainly for purposes related to your trade, business or profession you have a duty to disclose all material facts whether or not the insurer asks for specific information. This duty applies throughout the life of your policy, and when you renew your insurance. Material facts are any facts which may influence the insurer's decision to accept the policy and/or what terms are applied. Failure to disclose a material fact may invalidate your insurance and could mean that your claim will not be paid.

You should read all insurance documents issued to you and ensure that you are aware of and understand the cover, limits and other terms that apply. Particular attention should be paid to any warranties and conditions as failure to comply with them could invalidate your policy. You should inform us immediately of any changes in your circumstances that may affect the cover provided by your policy.

You should take note of the required procedures in the event of a claim, which will be stated in the policy documentation. Generally, insurers require immediate notification of a claim or circumstances that might lead to a claim.

If we are appointed as insurance broker midyear on policies arranged by another insurance broker we do not accept any liability for errors or omission on the existing contract of insurance until we have completed a review of the contract and policy wording and made our recommendations relative to your requirements.

Our Use of Information Supplied by You

All personal information about you will be treated as Private & Confidential (even when you are no longer a customer), except where the disclosure is made at your request, with your consent, in relation to administering your insurance or where law requires us. As part of the FCA's duties we may be asked to provide them with access to our customer records in order that they may carry out a review of our activities.

We and/or the insurers and/or credit providers may use publicly available data from a variety of sources, including credit reference agencies and other external organisations to verify your identity or creditworthiness, to avoid fraud, and to obtain beneficial quotes and payment options on your behalf. Each of the searches may appear on your credit report whether or not your application proceeds. By agreeing to these terms and conditions you agree to these uses of your information.

Telephone Recording

For our joint protection, telephone calls may be recorded or monitored.

Cancellation Rights

Non-commercial customers may have cooling off cancellation rights under their policy and these are described in the policy summary provided. Commercial customers are not entitled to a cooling off period. Many commercial policies do not allow for any refund of premium if a policy is cancelled mid-term. For those policies that do allow for a refund, this is at the discretion of the insurer.

Our Remuneration

We are usually paid by commission paid to us by your insurer or service provider. For services performed for the insurer, in connection with the insurance contract, we may be entitled to further separate payment from the insurer. Some insurers may separately make payment to us reflecting the aggregate income and or profitability of our entire account with them.

We may charge a fee for our services which may be partly or wholly in lieu of commission received from an insurer or service provider.

Additionally, we may charge an administration fee dependent upon the total overall premium level due to ourselves. Fees charged are non-refundable. Administration fees are stated below:

Consumer Customers, with a total premium spend of less than £1,500 –

Motor – New Business £50, Renewal £50, Mid Term Amendments £25, Cancellation Nil

All other policy types - New Business £35, Renewal £35, Mid Term Amendments £20, Cancellation Nil

Commercial Customers, with a total premium spend of less than £5,000 –

Motor – New Business £50, Renewal £50, Mid Term Amendments £25, Cancellation Nil

All other policy types - New Business £35, Renewal £35, Mid Term Amendments £20, Cancellation Nil

Any fee charged will not cover any work we do in relation to insurance policies which have not yet incepted or which we are not yet responsible for administering.

Other companies may be involved in placing your insurance(s) and where such companies are involved they may charge a fee for their services.

Our commission and our fees are earned for the policy period and we will be entitled to retain all commission and all fees in respect of the full policy period in relation to policies placed by us, even if the contract is terminated for any reason and even if you choose to appoint another intermediary in our place during the currency of your policy.

You are entitled at any time to request information regarding any commission which we may have received as a result of placing your insurance business. Please contact us for more information

Protecting Your Money

Prior to your premium being forwarded to the insurer, and for your protection, we either hold your money as an agent of the insurer (in which case your policy is treated as being paid for), or we hold it in trust for our clients. All premiums received from clients are co-mingled within a client Statutory Trust Bank Account. Our commission and fee earnings are withdrawn from this account within 25 business days of receipt. We may need to transfer your money to another intermediary in some cases. However your money will be protected at all times to the extent of the protection offered by the requirements of the FCA. We also reserve the right to retain interest earned on the client account. By accepting this Terms of Insurance Business document, you are giving your consent for us to operate in this way.

Choice of Insurers

We only seek insurance from companies that meet our minimum financial guidelines for usage (BBB 'good' defined by Standard & Poor) we also use insurers having an equivalent agency rating either A M Best or Fitch. We will not use insurers with a lower rating unless we receive instructions from you to the contrary. We will not in any circumstances act as an insurer nor guarantee or warrant the solvency of an insurer.

Complaints Handling

It is our intention to provide a high level of service at all times. If, however you have reason to make a complaint about our service you should contact the Managing Director. We will acknowledge your complaint within five working days and attempt to provide a resolution within eight weeks. If we are unable to resolve the issue within this time, we will inform you the reason why and confirm the next action. You may be entitled to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service. Further information is available at <http://www.financial-ombudsman.org.uk/>

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

We are covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme. You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme if we cannot meet our obligations. This depends on the type of business and the circumstances of the claim. Insurance advising and arranging is covered for 90% of the claim, without any upper limit. For compulsory classes of insurance, insurance advising and arranging is covered for 100% of the claim, also without any upper limit. The compensation scheme does not apply to consumer credit. Further information about compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS on 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100 or by visiting <http://www.fscs.org.uk/>

UK Money Laundering Regulations (1993)

The UK Money Laundering Regulations require certain financial institutions to confirm the identity and place of residency of each proposer. This may require sight of certain documentation and or checking with a credit reference agency, the electoral role or directory enquiries in order to verify your details. A credit reference agency may record the search.

Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms of Business shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
